

I just heard that Sinclair Broadcasting is requiring their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. If Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, they should be obligated by law to serve the public interest. When a large company can control the airwaves, that is not democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Please be assured this is an action I object to and consider undemocratic. I will strive to see this labeled illegal.
